Moments of Life made possible by Hospice

Lorraine Howell lived the last eight months of her life at home, exactly where she wanted to be, surrounded by her loved ones.

With the help of her amazing hospice team, Lorraine was able to have more moments of life than anyone could have imagined. She was able to feel the wind in her face from the jeep rides her grandson Matt took her on, to the relaxing times she was able to get out and soak in her daughter Missy’s hot tub. There were lunches out with her sister Claudia and trips to the creamery with her youngest grandson Billy. Days at home meant spending time with her children and friends while enjoying her favorite home cooked meals and soups, not to mention doing word search puzzles with Little Billy. Lorraine’s quality of life was simply better with HOSPICE!

The holidays were filled with family and friends, and wonderful gatherings were experienced on her deck during the summer and winter months, thanks to the mild weather.

Lorraine was filled with the love of GOD and trusted HIM implicitly in life, and through her final journey home. The blessings Lorraine felt were evident each time she experienced the extraordinary care, comfort and compassion from her hospice team. Her Nurse Suzanna’s encouragement and medical guidance when she was struggling gave Lorraine comfort no other was able to give her. The spiritual connection and friendship between Brother Tom and Lorraine was a bond she treasured and valued. Their times and talks together gave Lorraine a peaceful assurance that her faith would see her through each day and that the best was yet to come. Claudine, Lorraine’s hospice aid and “angel in disguise” gave her dignity and comfort as well as providing the same to her family in the final days. Eric, the social worker, always knew what Lorraine needed and ultimately provided the WONDERFUL transport chair that enabled her to get around her home and onto her deck after she could no longer walk. Finally, Ann and Margaret, the “night crew” aided and assisted Lorraine and family through some very difficult evenings, helping them get through till the break of day.

Lorraine and her family were blessed with a quality of life that no one imagined was possible with terminal cancer. In addition to adding to Lorraine’s quality of life, this wonderful team provided the family with the knowledge, strength and support they needed to see that Lorraine was where she wanted to be for her final journey home (something that at times, they didn’t think they could do)….all made possible by hospice.
Message from the President

Daniel M. Grady, President and CEO

Recently I had the honor to be present at the We Honor Veterans Salute that was held at the Kaplan Family Hospice Residence for one of our patients who served during WWII. The Salute was performed by U.S. Military Academy Cadets. The full story is featured in this issue of the FOCUS.

What really impressed me other than the extremely moving ceremony is the fact that over forty cadets volunteered for this honor salute. We were honored to have four of them but needed to keep it small as to not overwhelm our patient and facility. We should note West Point Cadets get very little free time, maybe a few hours a week. Even still over 40 volunteered and more would have but they stopped the process knowing our needs.

We all understand we all owe our freedom and existence to these brave men and women, and, as a child of two veterans, I understand the sacrifices of all veterans regardless where or when they served.

The importance of honoring our veterans was made crystal clear to me that Sunday. During the presentation the cadets stood at attention and saluted our patient, he remarked how thrilled he was to be saluted, as he was “just a private” and had never been saluted before.

All I can say is that we need to be grateful to all veterans and to all those who are currently in uniform. Special thanks goes out to our U.S. Military Academy Cadets, as they too serve.

WWII Veteran and hospice patient Warren Harris tells his story to the cadets.

“Gratitude helps you to grow and expand; gratitude brings joy and laughter into your life and into the lives of all those around you.”

Hospice of Orange and Sullivan Counties is the leading source of information relating to end-of-life and palliative care in the community.
In your home or in ours...It’s about how you live

Nestled behind a lovely neighborhood in Newburgh, New York you are struck by the beauty of the building that stands before you at the end of Sunrise Lane. “Our home” is the Kaplan Family Hospice Residence, and upon reaching its ten year milestone has recently received a new updated look, with continued improvements to come.

For our families it is a welcomed sight knowing that beyond the doors their loved one will get the care they deserve, for our patients it is their new home. The residence offers a peaceful and soothing atmosphere that provides around the clock comfort care by a staff of Physicians, RN’s, LPN’s and Hospice Aides, as well as volunteers.

Our Kaplan Family Hospice Residence is the only facility in Orange and Sullivan Counties and one of only fourteen approved Hospice Residences in New York State. The gracious, peaceful design of the eleven bed facility, and dedicated professional staff means that the Residence offers the best in hospice care for you or your family member.

With end-of-life care shifting from hospital to home, the Kaplan Family Hospice Residence has been a refuge for many where there was no home to speak of or when care at their home was not possible. For most of us, the thought of living the last chapter of life in a hospital room does not balance with how we spend living our lives...at home, with our loved ones. Welcome to the Kaplan Family Hospice Residence...welcome home.

“The Kaplan Family Hospice Residence was beautiful. It was warm and friendly and we were told to treat it like our home away from home. From the time our mom arrived our family was treated with respect and every courtesy was extended. The staff was warm and caring and they were with us till the end. Although it was a difficult time for our family, we learned about the celebration of life versus the end of a life. We will always be thankful for everything hospice did.”
While the northeast had predictions of snow, wind, and hail for the weekend, it held off on Saturday April 2, 2016 for the Hospice annual spring gala with mild temperatures!

Ron and Jill Barton and Barton Chevrolet Cadillac, long-time Hospice supporters, were honored at the gala with 325 guests in attendance. From duck shaped pasta to watering cans filled with shrimp, Michael Bonura and his staff at Anthony's Pier 9 did an amazing job once again. The cocktail area was decorated with hanging rain boots, watering cans, wheelbarrows filled with fresh flowers, and multi-colored umbrellas. All of the guests enjoyed the refreshments at the bubble bar and were treated to a professional photograph and pewter umbrella lapel pin. Special thanks to Michael for creating the “mock” Barton Chevrolet Cadillac auto dealership displaying all of the battery operated Cadillac-style child wheelers available for purchase as auction items.

David Recine of Flowers by David Anthony decorated the ballroom with hanging umbrellas simulating dripping water with crystals. All appreciated the watering can centerpieces on the tables, enjoyed dancing to the music of the EPICSOUl Band, and as all are accustomed to, the fine dining at Anthony's Pier 9. The silent auction had a beautiful array of items, all donated by our generous donors.

Congratulations to raffle winner Dr. Joseph Lauterstein who is looking forward to his one-week stay at a Hyatt Regency Resort in Key West, Florida.

Hospice was proud and privileged to honor Ron and Jill Barton as this special couple has been deeply committed to Hospice and the success of the organization for many years. Barton Chevrolet Cadillac is supportive of all three annual Hospice Events: Tree of Life, Golf Classic, and Spring Gala. When Jill spoke at the gala, she reminded all that while we are all busy living, death is foreign to most of us, and so the services Hospice provides is critical in helping families with end-of-life care for their loved ones. She and Ron are very appreciative of the care and services Hospice provides.

Gloria Alisandrella, Director of Special Events, was proud to work with such a talented group of ladies! Special thanks to Gala Co-Chairs, Rachelle Klugman and Susan Supak, and the Gala Committee: Mary Caster, Linda Goldstein, Colleen Larsen, Joann Menendez, Lauren Ostner, and Nancy Seliga.

Hospice extends its appreciation to the major sponsors of the event: Barton Chevrolet Cadillac, Dr. Robert Dinsmore, and Crystal Run Healthcare, LLP. Because of their continued support, and the support of ALL of our sponsors, supporters, auction donors, and guests, the Hospice gala continues to be a success. This year alone, it netted $114,000 for the organization and this doesn’t happen without YOU. Please visit our website www.hospiceoforange.com to view the Photo Gallery from the event.

We look forward to seeing you for our gala on March 25, 2017!
Focus on a Hospice Family...

by Pilar Treus

The great Buddhist monk Thich Nhat Hanh has said that “the most precious gift we can offer anyone is our attention”. This attention along with loving care and kindness is what the team from Hospice of Orange and Sullivan offered my family and myself as our mother, Pilar Arestin, was dying of cancer.

My mom was my rock. She was the epitome of strength and charisma. Her smile and positive energy were contagious. She fought her illness till the end, hiding her pain so she would spare us ours. There is no love like the love of a mother, and perhaps the amount of grief and sadness I feel may be equivalent to the love I experienced from her. I feel so blessed to have been loved by this special woman, and there are no words to express my loss and how much she is missed. She is not here physically but lives deep down in my heart, where she will remain until we meet again one day.

The battle was a long one. Diagnosed ten years before her death, she went through three operations and chemotherapy, but these were not enough to save her. When we finally realized that she was nearing the end, I knew I wanted her to spend her last days at home surrounded by her family and far from the hospital she had come to despise. I had heard a lot of positive things about Hospice and being a native of Spain as are my parents, knew that dying at home was most customary and what my mom wanted.

When I called Hospice, from the start, I had a good feeling not only because the people were so understanding and kind, but because they were willing to help someone who was beside herself emotionally and to whom the world seemed to be falling apart. This dying experience was all new and foreign to me. Their priority became making mom comfortable and providing the best care possible.

Right away, someone came to the house to meet mom and start the care process. Mom was given a team consisting of a nurse, a social worker and pastoral care. They reached out and offered their help wholeheartedly. Tom Murphy, mom’s nurse, was patient and of a gentle nature, taking the time to answer my questions and not only assuage mom’s anxiety but mine as well, as he provided us with his professional care and kindness.

Chaplain Gary O’Connor reached out to me during mom’s illness and could tell that I was hurting, lost, and in need of spiritual counseling. His compassionate presence and listening are his gifts for which I will be forever grateful. He provided solace and healing to me in a time of ineffable sadness, and the counseling I received afterwards was invaluable as I grieved and looked for healing. Kim Warner, the social worker reached out several times and was gentle and comforting at the time of moms passing, offering my family and me help, hugs, and much support.

There were many times I had to call the office when I had questions, concerns, or mom was not responding to a medication. The secretary at the switchboard, in particular Denise Mason, responded with a calming, soothing voice which would almost instantly appease me, offering her loving assistance. I truly believe these people have a calling and they are a part of Hospice because they truly care and show a compassion necessary for this part of one’s life. My family and I are extremely grateful for their services, attention, and generosity, and are appreciative that they were there for us during a very sad and painful time in our lives. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
This poem was written by Pilar Treus as she journeyed through grief after the loss of her mother.

If You Don’t Share Your Broken Heart

If you don’t share your broken heart...
You’ll never grieve and honor the love of a special woman who gave birth to you and made you who you are...
You’ll never experience the kind, compassionate presence of a chaplain who offered you the chance to be first vulnerable and then brave...
You’ll never realize that through this kindness given, you have the opportunity of receiving a “gift” that will touch your soul transforming you, giving you strength and a thirst for self-discovery...
You’ll never cry reading a poem that a friend has shared because his heart has been broken too, and that’s what broken hearts do...
You’ll never know the courage it took for a “stoic” to show up in your driveway just wanting to share and cry with you...
You’ll never learn the importance of feeling the sadness, crying and learning from people who have entered the Gate of Tears...
You might not know what it means to face the fear of showing up and just being there for someone who is hurting, when there are no words...
You’ll never experience the true meaning of life, love and friendship and discover the importance of living in the moment and appreciating each breath...
BUT when you DO share your broken heart..,
In the end, you will have to say goodbye, it will hurt very much, and your heart will be broken again and again...
But you will learn too, that it is better to have shared your broken heart than to risk never having loved at all.

Cadets visit WWII Veterans as part of inaugural Honor Salute Program

On Sunday, April 3, 2016, Hospice and the U.S. Military Academy came together to honor Harris Warren, who originally hails from New Orleans, but now resides at the Kaplan Family Hospice Residence.

Mr. Warren is the first local veteran to take part in an Honor Salute with cadets.

For 70 years, Warren explained, he was embarrassed by his service having been drafted at age 18 in 1945. By the time he finished basic training at Fort Polk, Louisiana, the war was over. After completing initial entry training, Warren was about to be sent home when he and others were given the option of volunteering for special service without actually being told what that might entail.

His special service ended up being the ERC and he along with 2000 soldiers signed up over a million men to be specially trained for the “next war”.

“I was just a Private. No one ever saluted me before,” a teary-eyed Warren exclaimed after the ceremony. This is too much,” Warren added. “I’m honored.”

Walter E. Hughes, of Port Jervis, N.Y., an 82nd Airborne Division and WWII veteran, was visited in his home by U.S. Military Academy Cadets Collin Cooley, Class of 2019, and Bethany Russell, Class of 2017, on Sunday, April 17, 2016. The Cadets shared stories with the former paratrooper and presented him with a handmade quilt, a pin, a letter from a school student thanking him for his service to his Nation, as well as, a certificate of appreciation from HOSPICE and class coins from each of the Cadets’ classes. Hughes served from 1943-46 with the 504th Parachute Infantry, 82nd Airborne Division. He took part in some of some of the biggest operations of the war, and received two Purple Hearts among many other medals. To learn more about this amazing War Hero, google Walter E. Hughes and you will be amazed!

Hospice of Orange and Sullivan Counties, Inc. cares for many veterans and has developed this program with the guidance of Hospice of the Chesapeake and the U.S. Naval Academy who started the Honor Salute Program in 2013. We look forward to continuing to honor our veterans who deserve to be saluted for their amazing selfless actions given to protect our Nation and its people.
With a lot of help from family and friends, the 15th Annual “Shiney” Van Horn Run raised $6,000, the biggest sum yet, bringing the total of donations raised in Loving Memory of Tommy “Shiney” Van Horn over the last fifteen years to over $24,000.

Hospice of Orange and Sullivan Counties, Inc. is grateful to Friends of Thomas “Shiney” Van Horn, and listed them as a Benefactor to show appreciation for their dedicated work to honor Thomas and to support Hospice.

Sixteen years Thomas was diagnosed with stage four colon cancer at the age of 32 years old. After a 14 month battle, he left a wife and a six year old son Thomas. Tommy was the type of person to help out a friend in need, so when he was the one in need, all of his friends rallied to help where they could.

Tommy was a Harley man and loved to ride his motorcycle with his friends. We thank all friends and family who continue to ride, keeping his memory alive and supporting Hospice for the care he received at the end of his life.

The 15th Annual “Shiney” Run was held on March 19, 2016 in Port Jervis, NY.

The next Run will be on March 18, 2017. For more information contact Dorothy Van Horn 845-858-0846.
